2) In this connection, it is submitted that according to section 7 of the Bangalore Improvement Act, any casual vacancy in the office of a Trustee other than the Chairman occasioned by the death, resignation or disqualification of such Trustee shall be filled up within one month "

3) But in regard to the three members who tendered their resignation on 12/2/49, the period of one month fixed under section 7 of the Act to fill up the vacancies, has lapsed. there is any legal objection to the election of members to the Trust board to fill up the existing vacancies even after the lapse of the period fixed to fill up such casual vacancies

24) In regard to the resignation of Sri Nanjappa referred to in para 21 supra, the resignation letter dt 13/2/49 is reported to have been received on 24/3/49. The point for consideration is whether the period of one month fixed under section 7 of the Act is to be calculated from the date of the letter submitting the resignation or from the date on which it is received in the office of the chairman the period may perhaps be calculated from the latter date Then the election of a member in his place will be within the purview of the provisions referred to above but who of the four elected will fill up the vacancy caused by the resignation of Sri Nanjappa cannot be decided because the election to fill up the four existing prescribed period As the time limit has been exceeded the election appears to be irregular No remedy is provided for ~~for~~ a contravertion of the rule Sub-Cl (3) of Sec 7, however, makes ~~for~~ a saving provision for acting appointment when necessary for less than three months This requires an application to be made by the Municipal Council In the present case, it is not clear whether the vacancies are for a period less than three months The Administrative Secretariat may kindly verify before resorting to Sec 7(3)

2) However, as there is a substantial compliance with the law, to avoid all complications it appears to be expedient to approve of the election

Law Secy) 22/4

3) Section 7 of the Bangalore City Improvement Trust Act presenbes that within a period of one month ~~withdrawbook~~ any Casual vacancy in the office of a trustee other than the chairman, occasioned by the death resignation or disqualification of a trustee shall be filled up by an Election In the present case Three trustees tendered their resignation on 12 2 49 Election was held to fill up these vacancies on 4 4 49 The question now is whether this Election is valid inspite of the fact it was held long after the Expiry of the time limit prescribed ~~under~~ in the Act The Election is a valid one. It is an acknowledged principle of law that where the prescriptions of a Statute relate to the performance of a public duty such prescriptions seem to be generally understood as mere instructions for the guidance and government of those on whom the duty is imposed or in other words directory only (and not mandatory) the neglect of the prescription does not affect the validity of the Election act done in disregard of them" In Smith Vs Jones (1830) 1 B & Ad 334 Littledale J held that " when an Act ordered ~~to be done~~ a thing to be done by a public body or public officers and pointed out the specific time when it was to be done, it might be complied with after the time

39) In the light of these remarks the Election may be considered as valid Moreover it is not known when the resignations have been accepted. Resignations without acceptance amount to nothing, and the person resigning remains in office till his resignation is accepted the vacancy in the office occurs only after the acceptance of resignation. In the present case, resignation ~~was not dated~~ no doubt was tendered on 12 2 49 It is not known on what date it was accepted ~~If~~ The letter of govt to the Municipal Commissioner directing him to take immediate steps to hold the Election is dated 5 3 49 If this letter date is taken as the date on which the resignation is accepted the Election would be within the prescribed time Even otherwise it is to be held as valid as the ~~terms~~ prescription of Statute

Proceedings of the Special Meeting of the Bangalore City Municipal Council held on 4-4-1949 at 4 P M in the Council Hall of the City Municipal Offices, Bangalore in connection with the election of trustees to the Bangalore City Improvement Trust Board

At the outset Sri N Keshava Iyengar welcomed the new Commissioner, Sri Sati Darasnan who was again posted as Commissioner of the Municipality and expressed satisfaction that with his sportive spirit and co-operation, the work of the Council would proceed as smoothly as possible

Then the President informed that the Special Meeting of the Council had been convened with the object of electing 4 trustees to the Bangalore City Improvement Trust Board in the casual vacancies and that accordingly the calendar of events had also been issued, in response to which 5 nomination papers had been filed by Messrs R Anantharaman, G S Devadoss, K Narayan, D R Puttanna and G V Rudrappa

But as Sri G V Rudrappa had since withdrawn his candidature, there was no need for conducting the election and that therefore the remaining four candidates viz , Sri R Anantharaman, Sri G S Devadoss, Sri K Narayan, and Sri D R Puttanna would be duly declared as elected

Accordingly Messrs R Anantharaman, G S Devadoss, K Narayan and D R Puttanna were declared as elected as the trustees to the Bangalore City Improvement Trust Board from the Municipal Council

Then the meeting terminat
